Service Clubs & Organizations

Altrusa International of Findlay Club

In 1972, the Altrusa Club brought together a group of foreign-born women to learn about other cultures and customs, meet people and serve the community. Known today as the International Women of Hancock County (also known as the Findlay International Club) the club celebrated its proud history of service spanning over 40 years in Findlay and Hancock County. The ruby red anniversary cocktail reception was held at the Findlay Country Club. The mission of Altrusa International is to serve the community by achieving as a group what individuals cannot do alone. The club participates in many services projects, including providing scholarships for college students entering their senior year, providing books for the Family Center and helping at the Northwest Ohio Juvenile Diabetic Camp. The club also sponsors the Soles for Students project. Eligible members are singled out as recognized leaders in business, industry or a profession in the community. Meetings are held the 1st and 3rd Monday each month. For more information visit their website at: <http://tinyurl.com/AltrusaFindlay>

Arbor Day Foundation® Arbor Day Foundation

The Findlay Flag City Arbor is an affiliate of the Gleaner Life Insurance Society. Membership is based upon having a certificate with Gleaner Life, although other guests are welcome. The arbor meets on the third Monday of each month, alternating between a breakfast meeting and home meetings. Members do volunteer projects in the community and assist those in need through programs like Caring Hands. The arbor earns money by completing various projects as prescribed by the society. The arbor recognizes special activities such as Flag Day, Join Hands Day, Arbor Day, an annual state picnic and a biennial Gleaner convention. For more information, contact John King, president, at (419)-424-9520 or by mail at 603 E. Sandusky St., Findlay, Ohio 45840. You may also contact Chuck Shivley at (419) 423-1660.

Blanchard Valley Health System Auxiliary Club

The mission of the BVHSA is to provide service and raise funds to assist the hospital in promoting the health and welfare of the community. Auxiliary funds have enabled the hospital to purchase new medical equipment and facilities. Volunteer opportunities exist for: men and women 18 and older who would like to serve as adult volunteers; young women 14 and older who would like to serve in the candy striping program, youth 16-18 who are interested in the volunteer program; and for high school graduates currently enrolled in an institution of higher learning who are interested in being student volunteers. Membership dues are $10 (yearly). These dues support the scholarship fund. For more information, call Heather Schalk, Volunteer Services Manager, at 419-423-5342 or via email at hschalk@bvhealthsystem.org

ENGAGE Youth Council

The purpose of ENGAGE is to promote service-learning, youth philanthropy and civic engagement. The ENGAGE Youth Council is a merger between the ECLIPSe youth grant making council and the Mayor's Teen Advisory Council. ENGAGE remains part of the larger ECLIPSe Partnership. Members must be in the 8th grade – college level and live in Hancock County, and must also have a desire and commitment to be engaged in their community and to be active participants in ENGAGE activities. If you are interested, contact Hannah Twining at (419) 422-4424

Veteran Organizations

THE HANCOCK COUNTY VETERANS SERVICE OFFICE

Nichole Coleman
1100 East Main Cross St., Suite 201
Findlay, Ohio 45840
419-424-7036

What Is The Veterans Service Commission?

In 1886, the Ohio Legislature passed an act establishing the Soldiers Relief Commission. Each of the 88 counties in Ohio has a board of five honorably discharged veterans appointed to administer veteran programs in their respective county. Operating expenses are provided through county real estate taxes. In 1986, the Soldiers Relief Commission was renamed the Veterans Service Commission. Our role is to oversee the operation of the veterans Service Office; to provide temporary financial assistance to indigent veterans, spouse, dependent children and surviving spouses; and to assist veterans in obtaining earned benefits from the Federal, state and local levels of government.

What Can My Veterans Service Office Do For Me?

Your Hancock County Veterans Service Office is primarily available to help you or your families to understand benefits which include:

1. Exit from Service
2. Soldier/Sailor Relief Fund
3. Nursing Home Benefits
4. Education Benefits
5. Survivor Benefits
6. Counseling
7. Disability Benefits
8. Transportation
9. VA Home Loans
10. Prescriptions

Eligibility for most benefits is determined by the Veterans Administration office in Cleveland. The Veterans service Officer can either help in the application process to receive veteran's benefits or refer you or your family members to other Hancock County agencies for assistance. To best determine the service available to you and your family, meet with the Hancock County Veterans Service Officer. The Officer can provide a detailed explanation of all service-related benefits, eligibility requirements, and assistance with the application process. The Veterans Service Commission organizes the Memorial Day Parade and the Veterans Day Parade and other projects/events to assist Veterans. They also do the planning for the wreath ceremony at the Bridge on Memorial Day.

The purpose of the group is to promote the "Forgotten War" and friendship among veterans of the war. For more information, call Ronald D. Dutton at 419-348-3745

Veterans of Foreign Wars, Barry D. Lord Post 5645

The mission of the VFW is to honor and help veterans, both discharged and active military, through veterans and community service. The organization also helps active and discharged military families and donates to local charities. Membership is open to U.S. citizens who are veterans (regular members and governing body); currently serving in the U.S. military or have an honorable discharge; must have served overseas during a conflict and received an expeditionary medal, a campaign medal or ribbon, or imminent danger/hostile fire pay; and/or served 30 consecutive days duty in Korea or 60 days of non-consecutive duty in Korea; and/or be currently deployed in an area that qualifies for VFW membership. Meetings are held at 7:00 p.m. the first Wednesday of each month at the VFW Post home, 315 Walnut St. For more information, call 419-423-0023. Men's and ladies' auxiliary groups are also available. The men's auxiliary meets at 7 p.m. on the second Wednesday of the month. For more information on the men's auxiliary, call Dick Stall, men's auxiliary president, at the above number. The ladies' auxiliary meets at 7 p.m. on the second Thursday of each month at the VFW post. For more information, call Jessie King, president of the ladies' auxiliary, at the above phone number.

American Legion Auxiliary (Ralph D. Cole Unit 0003) **

The American Legion Auxiliary of the Ralph D. Cole Unit 0003 exists to help veterans and their families and children and youth. The group also engages in community service work and veterans' rehabilitation, donates to various charities and sponsors Girls State delegates. Meetings are held at 8 p.m. on the first Monday of the month at the post home, 120 West Front Street. Membership eligibility comes through the military service of a veteran, living or deceased, and/or the veteran's mother, wife, sister, daughter, granddaughter, great-granddaughter, grandmother or self. Service includes World War I and II, Korea, Vietnam, Grenada/Lebanon, Panama and the Persian Gulf War. To learn more about eligibility requirements, call 419-422-0552.
